Adam F. Rosenbloom Music Teacher - Secondary Supervising Teacher

Position Sought Supervising Teacher

Relationship of Registrant to Writer

I am happy to recommend Adam F. Rosenbloom as a secondary school teacher of music.

Adam's entire approach to teaching is thoroughly professional. He is a joy to watch in class where his sense of humor and excellent training in singing creates a relaxed atmosphere in which students of every age can enjoy and learn music.

Adam is eager to use his own singing voice to demonstrate what he expects from his classes. His standards are high but attainable. He is always prepared with detailed lesson plans and is very encouraging. Many individual students are called upon at each lesson. He appears to be wellliked by his students.

I believe Adam Rosenbloom is ideally suited to his chosen field. Additionally, I have observed him in an elementary school setting, where he has also excelled.

Adam is an ideal candidate with great potential. I recommend him without reservation.
